

SUPPLEMENT 3 to the *US SAILING APPEALS FOR 1997–2000

This third and last supplement to the US SAILING APPEALS FOR 1997–2000 contains one new US SAILING Question, number 80, and one revised ISAF Racing Rules Case, number 75, reprinted in full.

Also enclosed are replacement pages A-7 and A-8, which include the abstract of new Question 80 under rules M1.2(8) and M2.2(5) and the definition Rule. Please also insert the following corrections of typographical errors by hand. In Appeal 10, last paragraph, the next-to-last sentence should read “. . . against the boat, the boat has broken rule 31.1.” In Appeal 21, Facts and Decisions of the Protest Committee, last sentence, the quoted phrase should read “through no fault of her own.”

Dave McComb has again prepared the complete supplement for printing, and we very much appreciate his service.

Comments and suggestions about the book and supplements are most welcome and should be sent to the Appeals Committee by e-mail to Raceadmin@ussailing.org or by mail to US SAILING, P.O. Box 1260, Portsmouth RI 02781-0907.

Bill Bentsen, Chairman
US SAILING Appeals Committee
September 2000

QUESTION 80